Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6, 8-11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kawashima (EP 0544943 A1). Kawashima discloses a cooling device comprising a cooling chamber/vessel 1 adapted to contain a cooling agent 6/5; a g agent storage16/17 in fluid communication with the cooling chamber 1, the cooling agent storage being adapted to take up cooling agent from the cooling chamber 1 when at least a part of the cooling agent in the cooling chamber 1 exceeds a first predetermined temperature, and to return cooling agent to cool the cooling chamber 1when at least a part of the cooling agent in the cooling chamber remains below or is equal to a second predetermined temperature. Regarding sperconducting coil, the coil is intended to be cooled by the above cooling process. See Fig. 1-2, column 1, line 30 to column 7, line 10.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
